This is the largest
amateur Radio Flea Market in Atlantic
Canada

Buy new and used amateur Radios, accessories, computer equipment and other electronics. It is also a time to renew friendships with those Hams you chat with on the bands. Newly licensed Hams interested in knowing more about several aspects of the hobby will enjoy the presentations and chat time. For everyone wishing to learn more about the hobby of Amateur Radio, the best place to be on May 15th is at the Downeast Flea Market surrounded by hundreds of “hams” willing to answer your questions.
